(HELMETS) All riders are required to wear a safety approved riding helmet.
Helmets are worn at all times while handling a horse on the ground or mounted.

(BOOTS) Riding boots are required. However, hard-soled shoes with some type of heel may be used (check with instructor first). No Sneakers are allowed.
No bare feet or sandals are allowed around the horses.

(PANTS) Long pants are required for both Western and English riding. No shorts.
Breaches are fine but not required. Loose fitting jeans work just fine.

(GLOVES) All riders may want to have a pair of riding gloves, either leather or cloth with a grip on the palm.

(WEATHER) If it's cold outside, dress warmly. Add long johns and a down vest so you will have as much fun in the winter as the summer.
